Sample Road

This is us, the bloke on the left end has just left to go to England (beats us why?), so we are now seeking someone (male or female) that enjoys a good social life! We all work and one of us studies (or pretends to!) so we respect each others space, until Friday and Saturday night that is!

We regularly have a party, BBQ or go out together, so you will be welcome and your friends too!

We have a nice place with a good yard and we all pitch in to keep the place looking good and feeling like home. Your room is a large room which can take a queen size bed and plenty of furniture, and you will share a bathroom with one other (there are two in the house). Despite the fact we like to party on the weekend, we like our down time too, so don't freak, its not mad house all the time!

We don't mind what you do, but preferences are someone who likes AFL (we are all mad Dockers fans), if you don't we'll help you see the light!

Give us a call.....
