Taking pride of place in one of Strathfields most convenient and sought after suburban and picturesque tree-lined settings and immaculately positioned and presented to take advantage of all the culinary, transport, and lifestyle opportunities on offer is this tastefully refreshed, expansive and ambient, private and character-filled three bedroom, two bathroom freestanding family home.

This expansive, unparalleled and sun filled double fronted home showcases sophistication and style through a confluence of period features, stylish comforts, and spatial proportions, sure to appeal to all discerning tenants, families and intergenerational families looking for an oasis that accommodates to all! Enthralled by intimate luscious leafy and sunny surrounds coupled with its inviting appeal makes this the perfect place to call your next home.

Boasting an enviable North-to-rear orientation that allows for all day natural sunlight and crossflow breezes throughout, tenants will be instantly amazed by the grandiose flowing interiors and multiple entertainment areas, three generously proportioned bedrooms with storage, separate and renovated gas cooking kitchen, versatile living and dining zones that further flow into an adaptable sunroom, further spilling onto an alfresco patio and rear yard, made for entertaining, quiet enjoyment and relaxation!

Furthermore, this inviting residence is embraced by some of Sydneys finest Inner West attractions, culinary delights and eateries, the cafs and restaurant culture of Strathfield and Homebush, ample forms of transportation including Strathfield Train Station, a vast array of Private and State schools, parks and much more! Inspection is a must!
